Cabaret 2009 will feature a rocking night of humor and laughs

OMAHA, Nebraska – Mark Saturday, May 9th on your calendars and join Child Saving Institute for a rockin' good time at the Holiday Inn Omaha Convention Center for the annual Cabaret extravaganza headlined by comedian Henry Cho. Break out your poodle skirts, cashmere sweaters, cats-eye glasses, black leather jackets and polo shirts...swing those ponytails and slick back your ducktails, it's a 50's party! Following cocktails and dinner, Cho will take center stage for a full hour of rib-tickling laughter.

Cho, a well-known comedian, stars in his own Comedy Central special entitled "What's That Clickin' Noise." He is currently developing a TV sitcom with Late, Late Show host Craig Ferguson as creator, writer, and producer. "As creator and producer of the show," says Cho, "I'm looking forward to starring in something that's based on my life and my standup routines." Cho's experience includes numerous film and television appearances.

Cabaret 2009 tickets are $150 each. Underwriting sponsorship opportunities range from $2,500 to $25,000. Cabaret 2009 Honorary Chairmen are Mogens & Cindy Bay. General Chairmen are Mark & Mary Lou Brasee and David & Christine Nikunen. WOWT Channel 6 is the TV media sponsor. For information contact the CSI Development office at (402) 504-3664 or visit childsaving.org.

A fully restored mint condition red 1957 Chevy Bel Air will be on site to be driven away by the lucky raffle winner. Raffle tickets are for this amazing two-door hardtop are $100 each and can be purchased prior to the event by cash or check at the agency located at 4545 Dodge Street in Omaha and at the event. Only 600 raffle tickets will be sold and are available now. The rare classic car will be awarded to the winner "as is." Winner need not be present to win.

Money raised during the annual fundraiser will support CSI's emergency shelters for children and youth, substance abuse intervention, intensive family preservation, adoption, therapeutic foster care and developmental childcare.

Child Saving Institute, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit child welfare organization, is dedicated to the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Since 1892, CSI's mission has never wavered from providing care for abandoned, neglected and abused children. CSI has met the changing needs for children in the Omaha metro area based on the belief that children are the community's most valuable resource.

CSI's Mission: Responding to the cry of a child.
