Tagge*Rutherford Corporate Links Challenge raises record $65,000 for kids

Omaha, Nebraska - The Tagge*Rutherford Corporate Links Challenge for Child Saving Institute raised a record $65,000 to help provide prevention, intervention and treatment for abused and neglected kids. The 13 year-old charitable golf event, Golf Fore Kids, has taken a bold new approach and developed a handicapped two-person best ball tournament. Teams of two represented local businesses with Tim Kryszak and Timmon Petersen from Proxibid.com shooting a 59 to win the SEi Corporate Cup Trophy. The event was held Monday, July 27 at The Players Club at Deer Creek. The event hosted a second flight of 4-player scramble teams.

Golf Fore Kids is the Child Saving Institute Guild Board’s annual tournament to help children in the agency's care. Sponsorships included: Trophy Sponsor SEi, Par 3 Sponsor BP, a leading energy company, Hole Sponsor Proxibid, and Welcome Sponsors LuckyDuckGolf.com and Chill Marketing. Event Chairmen were Lucy Cummins Dogger, Carol Knobbe, and Jennifer Rutherford. The awards ceremony was hosted by Live at Daybreak Anchor Jim Siedlecki who teamed with Evening Anchor John Knicely to represent WOWT on the golf course shooting a 5 under par.

Child Saving Institute, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit child welfare organization, is dedicated to the prevention, intervention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Since 1892, CSI's mission has never wavered from providing care for abandoned, neglected and abused children. CSI has met the changing needs for children in the Omaha metro area based on the belief that children are the community's most valuable resource. CSI’s Mission: Responding to the cry of a child.
