Touch-A-Truck event for kids set for Saturday October 3rd

OMAHA, Nebraska - The Child Saving Institute (CSI) Guild presents the 3rd annual Touch-A-Truck event, Saturday, October 3rd from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The CSI's Guild's exciting "friendraiser" is an event where children can see up close and climb on "real life" vehicles. The event is free for children and their parents or guardians. Touch-A-Truck is held in the First Data/UNO parking lots just south of 69th and Pacific Street. Kids will explore emergency, military, semi-trucks, and other commercial vehicles and talk to the people who operate them. Other activities will include face-painting, bouncy houses, clowns and more. Touch-A-Truck Chairmen are Cindy Huff, Kara Plumb and Trish Walz. Sponsored by Kum & Go, Carson Wealth Management Group, and WOWT.

Child Saving Institute, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit child welfare organization, is dedicated to the prevention, intervention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Since 1892, CSI's mission has never wavered from providing care for abandoned, neglected and abused children. CSI has met the changing needs for children in the Omaha metro area based on the belief that children are the community's most valuable resource. CSI's Mission: Responding to the cry of a child.
