'Moroccan Nights' benefit raises $28,348

Omaha Nebraska - Child Saving Institute's Guild Board celebrated their annual Sparkling Nights fundraiser, "a tented affair," at Happy Hollow Country Club on Friday, September 8th. Guests were whisked away to the fantastical traditions of palm reading, belly dancing and Moroccan inspired cuisine. 175 guests danced the night away with music from the Personics. Chairmen for the event were Jaclyn Jandric, Tanya Morrison and Carmen Smith. The event benefits the children and youth served by Child Saving Institute.

Child Saving Institute, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit child welfare organization, is dedicated to the prevention and treatment of child abuse and neglect. Since 1892, CSI's mission has never wavered from providing care for abandoned, neglected and abused children. CSI has met the changing needs of children in the Omaha metro area based on the belief that children are the community's most valuable resource. CSI's Mission: Responding to the cry of a child.
